Rights and Wrong
With all the "rights" talk going around, a recent editorial in Nation's Business deserves consideration:

"Remember the old saying, 'Two wrongs never make a right'? These days there's some talk about wrongs, but much more about 'rights'—the 'right' to a guaranteed income, the 'right' to health care, the 'right' to a handsome pension. All of which would cost enormous amounts of money.

"Those of us who would have to pay for all these things may be beginning to wonder whether the old saying shouldn't be given a new twist: Maybe two many 'rights' can make a wrong." — Chattanooga (Tenn.) News-Free Press

Think Big

The Kentucky chapter of the United Spanish War Veterans has taken its case to the government and has received a typical bureaucratic reply. The veterans' request is being given "careful consideration."

According to A. M. Causey, the chapter's 100-year-old commander, all "the boys who remembered the Maine" want is some recognition—namely, a postage stamp commemorating their response to the call to arms in 1898.

Therein lies the difficulty. The vets should have asked for a monument. The bureaucracy simply isn't equipped to cope with somebody who just wants a stamp. —Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal

Catching Up

We suppose the sociologists and anti-women's lib types will have a field day with a recent FBI report.

The female crime rate for most offenses is rising faster than the male rate. That, at least, is what police records show over the past 10 years. No doubt the gals will plead human, capable of all human frailties. Hard for the cynics to refute. —Atlanta (Ga.) Journal

Cool, Dry Weather for Tuesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cool front has entered Arkansas, and is scheduled to drift southward across the state by Tuesday morning.

The system will bring slightly cooler and drier air to most sections of the state.

An Atlantic high pressure cell ridges westward across the Gulf of Mexico and the Gulf Coast states, moving warm, moist air across Arkansas. The high will produce a chance of showers and thundershowers, but that chance will end in the north half tonight and the southern portion Tuesday.

High temperatures through Tuesday are forecast in the 80s, with lows tonight in the mid 60s to low 70s.

Sunday's highs were in the 80s and low 90s, ranging from a high of 93 at Fort Smith to 82 at Texarkana.

Overnight lows around the state include Fayetteville 65, Harrison 68, Jonesboro 75, Pine Bluff 71, Texarkana 72, El Dorado 70, Memphis 74, Little Rock 75 and Fort Smith 73.

Rainfall reported for the 24-hour period ended at 7 a.m. today included .02 of an inch at Jonesboro, .03 at Memphis, .13 at El Dorado and traces at Pine Bluff, Texarkana and Fort Smith.

Body Returned From Uba City

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The body of a former Fort Smith man, who was identified as one of the victims of a series of slayings in Uba City, Calif., discovered in May, will be returned for graveside services Tuesday.

Services for Paul B. Allen, 59, will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the National Cemetery here.

Mr. Allen is survived by two brothers and two sisters.

Picking Jury for Capt. Medina Trial

By KATHRYN JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
FT. MCPHERSON, Ga. (AP)

— Selection of a jury begins today for the trial of Capt. Ernest Medina, charged with assault and murder of 102 Vietnamese civilians during the My Lai sweep more than three years ago.

Defense lawyers F. Lee Bailey of Boston and Capt. Mark Kadish, and the Army prosecutor, Capt. William Eckhardt, begin their jury selection from an initial panel of 10 officers. A minimum of five jurors is required for a court-martial, but usually more are selected.

Medina, of Montrose, Colo., was commander of Charlie Company when the Americal Division infantry unit swept through the Vietnamese hamlet May 16, 1968.

The 34-year-old wiry captain will be tried on a noncapital basis, which means the maximum sentence a jury could give him would be life imprisonment.

One of his platoon leaders at My Lai was Lt. William L. Calley Jr., who was convicted at Ft. Benning, Ga., March 29 of murdering 22 civilians at the Vietnamese hamlet. Calley could have gotten a death sentence, but the jury set his term at life. His case is under review.

Medina denied in testimony at Calley's court-martial that he ordered his troops to kill civilians at My Lai.

The military judge, Col. Kenneth Howard, and lawyers for both sides have said they expect Medina's trial to be considerably shorter than Calley's 4½-month court-martial.

Medina is charged with premeditated murder but the Army has said he is held responsible for the deaths and is not accused of personally slaying 100 civilians. The captain is accused in two separate charges of killing two victims himself.

Howard said he thinks the approach to Medina's case will be along the lines of the case of Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita. After World War II, the United States prosecuted the Japanese general for failing to stop atrocities of his troops in the Philippines.

Joys of Life O.K., But Remembering Regrets Would Be Death of Us

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Memory can kill as well as reward.

If all the guilt or regret we have felt over what we have done or what has happened to us stayed full strength in our minds their poignancy would destroy us. We could not bear their intensity.

Fortunately, however, memory is selective and ameliorating.

It softens the blow of past guilts and regrets; it casts a mellow glow around the years gone by; it stirs in us a sigh rather than a cry for all those forgotten yesterdays that somehow taught us to live.

You've got a long string of memories yourself to stretch from there to here if you can look back and remember when—

One of a child's favorite toys was the china egg a farmer put under a bemused young hen to inspire her to lay.

Kids who did their homework on a kitchen table lit by a kerosene lamp felt sorry for Abraham Lincoln because he had had to do his arithmetic lessons by firelight on a wooden shovel with a piece of charcoal.

Although Grandma was glad to get her fine new gas stove, she hated to throw away the old coal stove she had labored over most of her lifetime.

The big reason a mother didn't want her son to become a policeman was because he might end up with flat feet.

Beauty Alone Not Enough Says Lebanon Girl, Miss Universe

By HUBERT MIZELL

MIAMI BEACH (AP)

— "Beauty isn't enough for a woman," says shapely Miss Universe 1971.

"If you lack intelligence and charm, you're a loser." Lebanon's Georgina Rizk recounted experiences Sunday that led to her crowning as successor to Puerto Rico's Marisol Malaret.

"Even an ugly woman, if feminine and gracious, can be more interesting to a man ... more interesting than a beautiful girl who lacks soul."

Miss Rizk, draped in a Kasbah dancing girl costume, won the judges votes Saturday night with her 35-24-35 figure.

Georgina has been a model since age 14. Her dream is to become a world famous cover girl.

"My work has taken me to Germany, Cyprus, Italy, Belgium and Kuwait," said the 18-year-old. "I hope to do my work good as Miss Universe and see the rest of the world."

The work begins with visits to New York, the Bahamas, Puerto Rico and Brazil during

Lockheed Loan Plan Is Still in Trouble

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)

— Despite an eleventh-hour appeal by President Nixon, Senate Republicans were gloomy today over chances of a quick vote on a bill to aid Lockheed Aircraft Corp. and other big businesses in financial trouble.

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said repeated efforts will be made this week to gain the two-thirds vote required to silence Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and a bipartisan band of Lockheed opponents trying to talk the bill to death.

Tower said prospects of winning, although dim for the first debate-shutoff vote, scheduled this afternoon, are "very good" for the next attempt planned for Wednesday. Even if that should fail, Tower said, he is

Add 6 States to Quarantine on Horses

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has extended a horse quarantine to six more states in an attempt to halt the northward spread of a disease that has killed more than 1,300 horses.

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin said Sunday night that horses in the six states will be vaccinated to establish a coast-to-coast barrier against Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis (VEE).

Affected are California, Arizona, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida. The quarantine, which restricts interstate movement of horses, is already in effect in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Agriculture officials said there are an average of about 150,000 horses in each of the states east of the Mississippi, 425,000 in California and 130,000 in Arizona.

"We have high hopes the disease will never get out of Texas—that we can stop it there with our expanding vaccination and mosquito spraying program," Hardin said in a news release.

"But because of its volatile nature...., we must move forward to vaccinate in areas where the threat of further spread is greatest," he said.

After a meeting with state officials Sunday, he said, it was decided state vaccination programs could be set up in 7 to 10 days.

The Department of Defense, where the vaccine was developed, said 1.3 million doses have been administered and two million more are being processed.

Since July 9 in the United States, 1,307 horses have died and 1,836 have been reported sick from VEE. Out of 94 suspected cases of VEE in humans, 21 have been confirmed, a spokesman said.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Paul Becton, of the Animal Health Division of the U.S. Agriculture Department, said Sunday that one-third of the state's horses had been vaccinated against Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis.

Becton said that 15,763 horses had been inoculated Friday and Saturday.

He said that 17,400 doses of the vaccine had been issued for use Sunday. The vaccination must take place the same day the medicine is mixed.

Becton said there are estimates of 90,000 horses in Arkansas.

Half of the horses vaccinated during the first two days were in Southwest Arkansas because it is near Texas, Becton said.

Over 1,000 horses have died in Texas of VEE, but no cases have been reported in Arkansas.

He said that most of the horses in the state will be vaccinated within three weeks.

"If we can be 90 per cent done in three weeks, we will be in good shape," he said.

Dairy Farm Decline to Continue

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said Saturday that the decline in milk cows and dairy farms was expected to continue during the 1970s.

Mills, speaking to the annual meeting of the Associated Milk Producers Inc., Arkansas Division, here, said that while milk production per cow was increasing, the decline in the number of cows was expected to more than offset the increase.

"Thus it is estimated that by 1980, milk production could fall below 110 billion pounds," Mills said. "The estimated decline in milk production suggests that there will be a better balance between supply and demand for dairy products in the decade."

Prior to his remarks, Mills was called "a national political product, a product Arkansas needs to sell" by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

The congressman, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has been mentioned as a possible prospect for the Democratic presidential nomination next year. He has said, however, that he is not a candidate.

Mills took no note of McClellan's remark. Instead, he said that foreign milk from subsidized operations should not be permitted to displace any further decline in American milk production.

Instead, he said, success in milk production should be met by producers administering marketing programs themselves "with the permissive and cooperative assistance from government agencies rather than through actual program operations by government."

Also attending the meeting were Reps. David Pryor, D-Ark., and John Paul Hammer, D-Ark., Lt. Gov. Bob Riley and Atty. Gen. Ray H. Thornton Jr.

The organization's officers were re-elected for another one-year term. They are H. B. Spence of Austin, president; Dwight Morris of Siloam Springs, vice president; Allen Hall of Branch, secretary-treasurer.

Explosive Cache Found at Greenwood

GREENWOOD, Ark. (AP) — Sebastian County officials are continuing their investigation Monday into the discovery of a cache of explosives near here early Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Tinner of Greenwood said that three men found the explosives hidden behind some rocks near U. S. 71.

Tinner said that 1,117 sticks of powder primer, 26 sticks of red dynamite and 400 blasting caps were found by the men who said they were "treasure hunting" with a metal detector.

Tinner said explosives were believed to have been taken from a nearby strip mine July 17.

The men, James Sexton, Milton Woolman and Richard Buca, all of Fort Smith, said they made the discovery at about 7:30 a.m. Sunday.

Officials said since the explosives were stolen a stock pond and tree have been blown up in the area.

The explosives were taken to Ft. Chaffee, near Fort Smith.

Vaughn Backing Fred Harris

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the National Urban Coalition, Jack H. Vaughn, says he is quitting to head a group backing Sen. Fred R. Harris' bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Announcing his decision Saturday, Vaughn said, "I think this is the time when the nation needs a leader who is really listening to the common man and speaking to the real issues."

Fred Harris is that man.

Vaughn, 50, has been with the coalition since last October. He is a former director of the Peace Corps and U.S. ambassador to Colombia.

Apollo 15 Breaks Out of Gravity and Heads for the Moon

Record Crowd Watches the Blast-Off

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Apollo watchers from around the globe joined Brevard County's 225,000 home folks today to see the beginning of a rocket trip designed to put America's seventh and eighth men on the moon.

Beefed-up state and local law enforcement staffs were prepared to handle a million or more space fans and the plain curious.

The largest crowd ever to jam this sand spit along the Atlantic was estimated at just over a million when history's first moonwalkers, Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin, and their moon orbiting sidekick Michael Collins began their journey two years ago this month.

The most important visitors had ringside seats at the VIP site three miles from the towering Saturn 5 rocket of Apollo 15.

Congress is represented by 32 House members and nine senators, most of them supporters of funds aimed at keeping the United States ahead of the Soviet Union in the space race.

In the foreign contingent are three leaders of the oil-rich little country of Kuwait, headed by Sheikh Jabir Abdullah al-Habir al-Sabah, governor of Ahmadi Province.

Also here are fashion designer Emilio Pucci of Italy, who designed the Apollo 15 emblem; German, Japanese and British government delegations, and 185 members of the British Astronomical Society and Royal Astronomical Society, who brought along their own musical combo, "The Moody Blues."

But most of the Apollo watchers are middle-class people who made the Cape Kennedy launch a part of vacation travel.

"I counted license plates from 28 states and Ontario," said Hal Shelton, operating a coffee and soft drink stand for Elks Lodge charities in the Jetty Park campground. "That's more than I saw last January when Apollo 14 went off on a Sunday and created terrible traffic jams."

Named Bank Pres. in Ft. Smith

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Adrian Williamson Jr., former executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, has been named president of the City National Bank here.

Williamson left the AIDC earlier this year to become vice president in charge of the International Division of Union National Bank in Little Rock.

The President also enlisted "Arnie's army" by calling golfer Arnold Palmer congratulations for winning the Westchester Classic at Harrison, N.Y.

Nixon has worked on budget preparations daily since Friday. Within a week, the Treasury Department is expected to announce the size of the 1971 deficit.

3 Accidents Sunday

City police report three accidents with minor damage for Sunday.

A three-car accident occurred at 1:10 p.m. at the intersection of 6th and Fulton Sts. The accident happened when a car driven by James Roy Wafer ran a stop sign and hit cars driven by Mike C. Huckabee and Ricky Robbins. All persons involved are from Hope. Damage was minor. Wafer was charged with running a stop sign and Huckabee and Robbins were charged with having no inspection stickers.

The second accident occurred at 1:45 p.m. on N. Walker St. near Rose Hill Cemetery. Willie T. Battee Jr. of Hope blacked out while at the wheel of his car and ran into a fence. He was taken to Memorial hospital with minor injuries.

A car driven by Norman R. Miller of Hope was struck by a car driven by Willie T. Ratliff, also of Hope at 7:25 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of 3rd and Hervey Sts. Ratliff was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Nixon Follows Flight on Television

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — Like millions of other Americans, President Nixon watched the Apollo 15 astronauts lift off from Cape Kennedy today on a voyage of discovery to the moon.

The President viewed the 9:34 a.m. launch on a color television set at his retreat at Camp David in the Catoctin Mountains. He was described by aides as "very pleased."

With the President who arose early to look over some budget papers were his wife Pat, daughter Julie, son-in-law David Eisenhower and friend C. G. (Bebe) Rebozo.

Nixon planned an early afternoon return to Washington. At the dinner hour Sunday, the President telephoned Cape Kennedy and spoke for about three minutes to Col. David R. Scott, Lt. Col. James B. Irwin and Maj. Alfred M. Worden, whose trip to the moon was scheduled to begin at 9:34 a.m. EDT. Nixon wished them well and godspeed, said Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House press secretary.

The President also enlisted "Arnie's army" by calling golfer Arnold Palmer congratulations for winning the Westchester Classic at Harrison, N.Y.

Nixon has worked on budget preparations daily since Friday. Within a week, the Treasury Department is expected to announce the size of the 1971 deficit.

On Friday, Scott and Irwin plan to steer the lunar landing craft they call Falcon to a precision landing in a basin at the base of the Apennine Mountains, tallest on the moon with peaks rising 15,000 feet high.

They would be the fourth American two-men team to land on the moon in two years.

Scott, Irwin and Worden were roused at 4:19 a.m. for a brief medical examination and the traditional launch day breakfast of steak, eggs, toast, coffee and orange juice. "They're in great shape," said Donald K. Slayton, director of flight crew operations.

Technicians helped them into their white spacesuits with the bubble helmets and the American flag emblazoned on the sleeves.

As the astronauts left the crew quarters, they smiled and waved at about 500 space workers and newsmen who applauded and shouted, "Good luck!"

Bus Ride Was Failure

LONDON (AP) — The London Transport Authority invited a group of city councilmen and police for a bus ride to prove the safety of a new bus route which residents along it had protested. Midway in the ride, the bus ran into a parked car.

"We are reconsidering the scheme," said a spokesman for the transport authority.

Fordyce Company Destroyed by Fire

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) — The Fordyce Picture Frame Co., which employs about 65 persons, was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon.

A spokesman for the plant, which is located 2½ miles north of here, said all that could be saved was some office equipment and transport trucks.

27 Hurt in Monorail Crackup

By ELIAS CASTILLO
Associated Press Writer

SEATTLE (AP) — Twenty-seven persons were injured Sunday when a streamlined train on Seattle's monorail line—constructed to carry passengers from the downtown area to the site of the city's 1962 world fair—slammed into a steel girder.

The accident occurred at the monorail terminal at the Seattle Center, a complex of exhibits, shops and amusements which occupies the site of the world fairgrounds. Most of the injured suffered facial lacerations or fractures, hospital officials reported.

Jess Dawson, a spokesman of the Seattle Transit Co. which operates the monorail, said the elevated train is capable of operating at speeds of up to 40 miles an hour, but it "certainly wasn't going that fast when it hit."

Dawson said the cause of the crash has not been determined. One passenger, Albert Koehler of Phoenix, Ariz., the engineer, Willis C. Kirk of Mountlake Terrace, Wash., yelled "hang on" just before the accident. Koehler suffered a cut nose and his wife Ruby was treated for a fractured arm.

Kirk was treated at Doctor's Hospital for lacerations. Jesse Simson of Carpinteria, Calif., who was on the platform as the train pulled into the terminal, said: "I saw it coming and I thought it was funny—it didn't slow down. It just kept going and wham."

Kim Myers, 23, of New York City, one of the passengers, said: "The train was going into the terminal and it speeded up. I thought it was like a fun thing, that we were going to make a dramatic stop, and then it just kept crashing."

Bystanders pried doors open to let passengers out.

Conformity Grips U.S., Says Bumpers

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Saturday that a significant portion of the nation's population had accepted the idea that "the best way of life is the way of conformity" and the same idea had "enslaved the administration in Washington."

"Thou shalt accept thy fate," has become the 11th Commandment, and our country stagnates from leadership submitting to it," Bumpers said.

Bumpers made the remarks in a speech prepared for delivery at a birthday celebration here Saturday night for Gov. Warren Hearnes of Missouri.

Bumpers said that polls show the average American feels alienated from the government.

"Just this week a poll showed that over 40 per cent of our people no longer question whether the U.S. will collapse, but when," he said. "People are turning to government for aid and comfort find only further frustration."

Judge Becomes President

VALLEJO, Calif. (AP) — The new president of the Sierra Club says that while the conservationist movement is making substantial progress is having the environment, every defeat can result in permanent damage.

"The other side can lose and still achieve a turnaround," Solano County Superior Court Judge Raymond J. Sherwin said Sunday.

"If we lose, it's gone." The 55-year-old judge became president last May of the 130,000 member club.

"There is no purpose in protecting parks and wilderness if our children, and even ourselves, will not survive to enjoy them," Sherwin said.

S. Vietnamese Net Fails to Trap Enemy

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces pressed a new drive east of the A Shau valley today and closed out an unproductive 10,000-man sweep in Eastern Cambodia.

While 1,600 infantrymen swept through the mountains east of the A Shau, a force of 10,000 men and 200 armored vehicles in Cambodia pulled back to Highway 7 after five days of fruitless searching for North Vietnamese forces.

"The North Vietnamese troops pulled back," said one South Vietnamese officer. The operation north of Krok produced only one significant contact in which 37 of the enemy were killed.

However, the officer said the Saigon forces were remaining in Cambodia along Highway 7, resupplying and regrouping. He indicated they may make a new sweep, perhaps in a different region of Cambodia.

The South Vietnamese forces had advanced as much as 10 miles north of Highway 7. Their objective was to harass the North Vietnamese 7th Division and keep it from infiltrating into South Vietnam to make trouble during the congressional elections Aug. 29.

The sweep east of the A Shau valley, 375 miles north of Saigon, is a new effort to root out North Vietnamese forces threatening Hue and other towns in the coastal lowlands.

U.S. helicopters landed the 1st Division infantrymen in the region Sunday and today. No significant ground contact was reported, although the U.S. helicopters received some small arms fire.

Rocket-firing helicopters knocked out one machine gun and killed two enemy troops.

The drive was launched after U.S. reconnaissance helicopters reported receiving heavy anti-aircraft fire in the A Shau region.

Week-end Road Deaths Show Drop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Three persons lost their lives on Arkansas' highways this past weekend — a sharp contrast to the 10 highway deaths recorded the previous weekend.

The Associated Press weekend highway fatality count period began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

In an effort to cut back on the number of accidents in Conway County, Sheriff Marlin Hawkins set up a series of roadblocks from 8 p.m. Saturday until 2 a.m. Sunday. His main target was the drinking driver.

Last week five persons were killed in accidents in Conway County.

More than 1,200 vehicles were checked during the period. Hawkins said among those arrested were 27 persons for driving while intoxicated and 37 persons for being drunk on the highway or recklessness.

However, one death occurred Sunday in Conway County.

Jeffrey Clowers, 8, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clowers of Little Rock, was killed as he returned from church with his brother and grandfather.

The State Police said Rev. J. G. Epperson, 65, of Center Ridge (Conway County) apparently lost control of his car on a curve.

The Rev. Mr. Epperson and the victim's brother, John, 7, were injured in the crash.

Earlier Sunday, James Dayberry, 24, of St. James (Stone County) was killed in an accident 12 miles east of Mountain View on Arkansas 14.

Officials said Dayberry was killed when Ray Ennis, 36, of St. James apparently lost control of the car the two were in. Ennis was not injured.

In another accident in Conway County, Harold J. Scott, 45, of Ola was killed and three persons injured Friday night in a two-vehicle accident, six miles south of Morrilton on Arkansas 9.

Police said a pickup truck driven by Scott crossed the center line and collided head-on with a pickup truck driven by Leonard E. Hubbard, 47, of near Morrilton.

Hubbard, his 45-year-old wife, Dorothy, and their son, Tumny, 15, were injured in that accident.

Transplant of Heart and Lungs is Made by Dr. Barnard

By KENNETH L. WHITING
Associated Press Writer

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Dr. Christiaan N. Barnard's latest transplant patient was in satisfactory condition today with his two new lungs and heart working adequately, a bulletin from Groote Schuur Hospital reported.

Following the operation Sunday, a hospital spokesman said the heart and lungs were functioning normally, but "it is too early to make any prediction about the immediate long-term result."

Adrian Herbert, 49, a Cape Town dental technician, received his new heart and lungs from Jackson Gunya, about 28, who died Saturday night from injuries he received in a fight.

The operation was Barnard's first combined heart-lung transplant, and the world's fourth. The previous ones were done in the United States, and all the patients died.

Medical sources said heart-lung transplants are not more difficult to perform than those involving only the heart, but chances of survival are considerably slimmer. The most critical period is the two weeks after the graft when the patient's resistance to infection is low and when the transplanted lungs tend to fill with fluid.

Rosaline Gunya, widow of the donor, complained that no one had informed her that her husband was to be used as a donor when she visited him in the hospital before he died.

"I would never have given permission for such a thing if I had known," Mrs. Gunya said.

A hospital spokesman said Gunya's relatives could not be located before the operation.

"This was a police case," he said, "and the permission of the attorney general, government pathologist and the district surgeon were obtained before the donor's organs were transplanted."

Herbert was reported to be "colored," the official South African term for mulattoes. Gun-

Old War Hero 3rd Candidate in Vietnam

By J. T. WOLKERSTORFER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Retired Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh today became the third man to announce his candidacy for the presidency of South Vietnam. But he named a surprise running mate.

The 56-year-old hero of the coup that overthrew President Ngo Dinh Diem also made his candidacy conditional on President Nguyen Van Thieu's not trying to rig the election Oct. 3, saying:

"I would ask the people to leave me an escape if I see that the elections are not clean. I would ask the people again to pardon me and permit me to withdraw."

Thieu formally announced on Saturday that he will seek a second four-year term, and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky declared himself a candidate several weeks ago.

Minh's running mate will be Ho Van Minh, 35-year-old deputy speaker of the National House of Representatives and a leading member of the lower house's anti-Thieu bloc. This surprise candidacy was first announced by Ho himself as newsmen gathered at Minh's villa for his announcement.

Although Ho's name had figured prominently last week in speculation about Minh's running mate, provided for by the 1971 election law in case the primary candidate cannot run, Minh selected Sen. Hog Son Dong, a leader of the Cao Dai sect that it is estimated to have between one million and two million followers.

confident the bill will pass before the weekend.

Administration sources suffered a setback when Sen. James L. Buckley, a New York Republican-Conservative, said he opposed the bill which has been broadened from specific aid for Lockheed to include authority for $250 million in guarantees for any ailing company whose collapse could hurt the economy.

Buckley, in a statement Saturday, said the bill "would pioneer a form of government intervention that would erode market disciplines acquired by a healthy system of free and competitive enterprise."

Minh's running mate will be Ho Van Minh, 35-year-old deputy speaker of the National House of Representatives and a leading member of the lower house's anti-Thieu bloc. This surprise candidacy was first announced by Ho himself as newsmen gathered at Minh's villa for his announcement.

South Vietnam's population is about 80 per cent Buddhist and almost 20 per cent Catholic, with a number of small religious minority sects making up the rest.

Fro an alternative running mate, provided for by the 1971 election law in case the primary candidate cannot run, Minh selected Sen. Hog Son Dong, a leader of the Cao Dai sect that it is estimated to have between one million and two million followers.

Fight Upon Pollution Bugged Down

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two weeks ago it appeared government and industry would light their way to control of industrial water pollution while the public was kept in the dark. Today they are all in the dark together.

Environmental Protection Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus last week acknowledged failure of federal efforts to develop reliable guidelines for industrial waste discharges. As a result:

—Some regional administrators responsible for writing federal permits for such discharges don't know what is expected of them and are asking Washington to explain its policy.

—Others will use their own judgment, fully expecting to be sued by some of the companies they try to regulate.

—And the National Association of Manufacturers would be unhappy either way. NAM wants the whole permit program junked.

DALLAS (AP) — Almost half of the 236 workers in the regional post office in Dallas retired rather than go to Memphis, Tenn., to compete for jobs with the new regional office there.

Pre-nuptial Parties

Pre-nuptial parties for Miss Debbie Connelly included a tea in the home of Mrs. Bill Watson on Thursday, July 15 with Mesdames Bob Westbrook, Jewel Moore, Jr., Barry Brown, Robert Cox, Tom Watson, Jim James, Hendrix Spraggins, and Miss Charlene Wiggins as hostesses.

The honoree wore a lavender crepe dress and had a lavender daisy corsage. She was presented an electric appliance as a wedding gift. Cake squares and punch were served to 80 that included Mrs. Robert Allison, Conway, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. D.E. Murphree and Mrs. Leo Goad, Little Rock; and Miss Linda Murphree, Dallas.

In Conway on Sunday, July 18 a dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malpica with Mrs. Larry Malpica and Mrs. Neill McKinney assisting with the courtesies. The bride-elect wore an emerald green coat dress and had a daisy corsage. Summer flowers decorated the table where covers were laid for 12. A gift of silver was presented by the hosts.

Three entertainments were enjoyed in Conway on Monday, July 19. Mr. and Mrs. Dave H. Ward's home on the Arkansas River was the setting for a breakfast attended by Miss Connelly, her mother, Mrs. James Connelly, a sister, Miss Kim Connelly, all of Hope, Mrs. Robert Allison, mother of the groom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malpica, and the host couple. A gift of silver was presented to the honoree.

Mrs. E.E. Frazier and Mrs. Albert Sneed were hostesses at a luncheon July 19 at the Holiday Inn. Covers were laid for 10, and china was presented as a gift. That afternoon a tea was held at the home of Mrs. Gussie Scales with Mrs. Walter Ed Scales and Mrs. Charles Jones, co-hostesses. About 60 called during the appointed hours. The hostesses had a gift of silver for Miss Connelly.

MRS. DENNIS MICHAEL NEAL

Springhill Methodist Church was the setting Saturday, July 3, 1971, for the wedding of Terry Lynn O'Dell and Dennis Michael Neal with the Reverend Connie A. Robbins officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Dell, Jr. of Albuquerque, New Mexico and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Neal of Hope.

The bride wore an empire line dress of lace applique over taffeta with camelot sleeves. Her bubble veil was held in place by a petal headpiece edged with seed pearls and crystals.

Mrs. Ricky Neal was matron of honor and Leonard David O'Dell served as best man. The ushers were Brooks Collins and Ricky Neal.

Completing the wedding party were Mrs. Brooks Collins, Mrs. Carl D. Ward, Mrs. Norris Ratliff, Mrs. Betty Barham and Miss Mary Louise Collins.

The couple will be at home in Hope where Mr. Neal is associated with his father in business. Mrs. Neal is a 1970 graduate of Hope High School and a 1971 graduate of Atlantic Airline School. The O'Dells are former residents of Hope having moved to Albuquerque in March of this year where Mr. O'Dell is executive first vice-president of Albuquerque Western Industries.

MRS. HERB LITTLETON

Miss Carolyn Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Beck of Hope, and Herb Littleton of Little Rock, formerly of Houston, exchanged marriage vows at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, July 24 in the Baptist Medical Center Student Union Chapel in Little Rock.

Rev. Vernon Lierly performed the single ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Peggy Buck, organist, and John Gilbreath, soloist. Miss Janice Beck, sister of the bride, was candlelighter.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white satin accented by a front panel of Venice lace. The back pleat fell from an empire waist line into a chapel length train. The front panel and the back pleat were bordered with a white pleated organza and ribbon trim. A large satin bow accented the back pleat. Her elbow length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a headpiece of small white bridal lilies centered by a white rose. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered by yellow rose buds.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD SOUTHERLAND

Miss Dianne Marcum became the bride of Edward Southerland Saturday evening, July 17, at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church in Hope. Milton H. Peebles officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vance Marcum of Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. Cloys E.

Southerland of Conway.

The ceremony was performed before an arch of candles and Southern Smilax, flanked by two spiral candelabra. Two floor baskets of white gladiolas and daisies decorated the altar.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. R. L. Gosnell, organist, and Miss Gayle Williams, who sang "Because", "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of bridal satin and chantilly lace, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and fingertip-length sleeves. The bodice was embellished with seed pearls and a lace chapel train was attached at the shoulder. Her tiered illusion veil was held by a headpiece of embroidered lace petals trimmed in seed pearls.

She carried a cascade of pink and white roses and baby's breath, centered by a white cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Larry Minton of Little Rock was matron of honor. She wore a floor length empire gown of mint green crepe trimmed with antique rose velvet. The hem and short puffed sleeves were bordered by a crepe ruffle. She wore a bandeau of white daisies with mint green ribbon in her hair, she carried a nosegay of pastel carnations, pompon mums and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dick Halbrook of Little Rock and Mrs. Mike Monroe, cousin of the bride. Their gowns and accessories were identical to those of the honor attendant.

Miss Tanya Southerland, sister of the groom, was flower girl. Her ensemble was a miniature of that worn by the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of daisies and Baby's breath.

Cloys E. Southerland, father of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman were J. B. Pendergraft of El Dorado and Dennis Debusk of Conway. Dick Halbrook of Little Rock and Gary Marcum, brother of the bride, ushered.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Forming a receiving line were parents of the couple, the bride and groom, and the bride's attendants.

The bride's table was covered with a white, floor-length satin cloth, with a full skirt, and overlaid with mint green lace. An arrangement of pastel carnations, white and yellow pompons flanked by white tapers in an antique gold candelabrum, formed the centerpiece.

The three tiered, white wedding cake was topped with the traditional bride and groom figurine. Serving at the reception were Miss Judy Foley, Miss Margaret Lackey of Little Rock, and Mrs. Larry Brown.

Mrs. Brooks Beazley of Little Rock presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Marcum, mother of the bride, wore a pink dress of linen and lace with a matching sleeveless coat and accessories. Mrs. Southerland, step-mother of the groom, wore a blue knit with white accessories. Their corsages were white cymbidium orchids.

For travel the bride wore a powder-blue pantsuit of summer knit with black patent accessories. She pinned the white orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Number Eight, Southmont Circle, in Little Rock, where Mrs. Southerland, a graduate of State College of Arkansas, teaches in the Little Rock school system. Mr. Southerland is employed as a credit adjuster with the Ford Motor Credit Co. of Little Rock.

Rehearsal Dinner

A rehearsal dinner was held for the Marcum-Southerland wedding party on the 16th of July at 8:00 at the Heritage House, hosted by the groom's parents. Covers were laid for twenty-two, including members of the wedding party and guests.

The bride-elect wore an applied sleeveless dress of beige summer knit.

Tables were covered with white linen tablecloths, and an arrangement of pink roses formed the centerpiece.

The bride and groom chose this occasion to present gifts to the wedding party.

Ali-Ellis Bout Is Tonight

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Muhammad Ali, the former king trying to regain his throne, and Jimmy Ellis, the former sparring partner trying to buy a tag, answer a list of intriguing questions tonight when they meet in a 12-round bout in the Astrodome.

What did the Joe Frazier fight take out of Ali? Does Ali still have enough speed? What will happen to boxing if Ali loses? Can Ellis elude Ali's deadly jab long enough to get off his lightning combinations?

A live gate of 25,000-30,000 in the Astrodome and possibly one million more watching on closed circuit television will see the answers unfold first-hand.

Although no title is at stake for this fight, it has taken on all the aspects of a championship bout, partly because of the pied-piper following of Ali, and partly because both fighters hope to use this fight to spring to another shot at Frazier's title.

Frazier represents the only blot on each fighter's heavy-weight record.

Closed circuit telecasts will be shown at 200 locations across the United States and in Toronto and Vancouver, Canada. Satellite will carry the fight to 34 foreign countries. British and Mexican television will cover the fight live. The live gate is expected to be about $300,000.

Ali will get 45 per cent of all income against a guarantee of $450,000, including the closed circuit revenue. Ellis gets 20 per cent of all income. Tickets are scaled from $75 for ring-side, to $25 and $10. There also are 10,000 "Ali special" seats at $5 each to meet a request from Ali.

It will be the first fight for Ali since a June 28 U.S. Supreme Court decision reversed a five-year conviction for draft evasion and once again left him free to regain the title that was stripped from him for refusing the draft.

Ali, one of the most magnetic personalities in fight history, lost for the first time in his 32-fight career on March 8 in a brutal contest with Frazier.

Ali has been asked constantly since opening training here, what the Frazier fight has done to him.

"Look at my face and look at this," Ali usually says. "He was messed up bad. I had a puffed jaw for a few days but it went away. He still looks bad. He had to take a hospital rest."

Ali admits his speed isn't quite what it used to be before his exile from fighting. "I'm past my prime," he said. "I know I'm in my last days."

He remembered a national magazine using a timing device to clock the speed of his punch. "It was .04 of a second," he said. "It takes .25 of a second to think about moving. You're hit before you know it." He joked that he's probably slowed down to .12 by now.

San Diego Defeats Pittsburgh

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Fred Norman and Steve Arlin are not nearly comparable as pitchers to former Los Angeles stars Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale, but they—and the rest of the San Diego staff—resemble the outstanding Dodger mound corps of the mid-1960's, according to Bob Miller.

Miller, a member of the Dodgers from 1963 to 1967 when Koufax and Drysdale led them to three National League pennants, and now at 32 the dean of the Padres' hurlers, made his comparison after Norman pitched a five-hitter in the opener and Arlin fired a three-hitter in the nightcap as San Diego swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh's slugging Pirates 2-1 and 2-0 Sunday.

It was the first time this season that the Pirates—the top hitting club in the major leagues—had lost a doubleheader in five twinbills.

Elsewhere in the National League, San Francisco beat Cincinnati 7-3 before losing 5-2; Atlanta defeated Los Angeles 3-1; Montreal held off St. Louis 5-4; New York whipped Houston 7-6, and Philadelphia edged Chicago 2-1.

In the American League, Chicago took two games from Washington 5-1 and 9-6; New York also won twice, thrashing Milwaukee 6-2 in 11 innings and 11-9; Kansas City and Cleveland split, the Royals winning the opener 4-3 and the Indians taking the nightcap 2-1; California and Baltimore also divided, the Angels winning the first game 6-2 and the Orioles taking the second game 9-6 in 13 innings; Detroit beat Oakland 7-4 then lost 6-1, and Minnesota downed Boston 6-2.

Norman, a 5-8, 160-pound left-hander, who had won only two games in parts of six major league seasons with Kansas City, the Chicago Cubs, Los Angeles and St. Louis, before being acquired by the Padres earlier this year from the Cardinals, earned his first victory of 1971 after six losses with his sparkling effort against the Pirates. He struck out five batters, including major league home run leader Willie Stargell four times. It was Norman's first complete game victory in the majors.

Leron Lee, also obtained from St. Louis earlier this season, accounted for both San Diego runs in support of Norman. He hit his third homer of the year off Bob Johnson in the third inning and doubled and scored on Clarence Gaston's single in the fifth.

Arlin, a 6-3, 195-pound right-hander who was 1-1 in two previous trials with San Diego, boosted his season's record to 5-13 with his third shutout, in the nightcap. He walked two and struck out seven.

Singles by Ollie Brown and Ed Spiezio in the second inning drove in the only runs of the game.

The Padres' two victories must have made Manager Preston Gomez feel better. Gomez, who underwent a hernia operation a week ago, returned to his post last Friday, but went home after three innings because of severe pain. He was expected back again Sunday, but was forced to remain at home and recuperate.

Bobby Bonds collected three singles and drove in two runs, while Willie McCovey also knocked in two runs as the Giants trimmed Cincinnati in their opener behind the nine-hit pitching of Gaylord Perry.

Lee May's eighth-inning homer, his 25th broke a 2-2 deadlock in the nightcap and gave the Reds a split. Tony Perez whacked his 17th homer with one on in the third for Cincinnati's first two runs.

Willie Mays, the All-Star center-fielder of the Giants, did not play in either game. He was rested by Manager Charlie Fox.

Despite the split, the Giants increased their NL West lead to 8½ games over Los Angeles.

The Dodgers suffered their 14th loss in 19 games, bowing to the seven-hit pitching of Atlanta's knuckleballing Phil Niekro. Ralph Garr's single, double and sacrifice fly paced the Braves to their sixth victory in seven games.

John Bateman's fourth-inning grand slam homer broke a scoreless tie and powered Montreal past St. Louis. Bateman admitted he was a little leery

TRIPLES — Carew, Minn., 7; about facing St. Louis pitcher Reggie Cleveland.

"The last time I faced him in St. Louis," said Bateman, "he threw me fastballs my first three times up and I hit him pretty well. The last time at bat, he struck me out in sliders."

Cleon Jones rapped a single, double and homer, and Ken Boswell drove in two runs with a pair of singles as the Mets defeated Houston in a loosely played game. Jones' homer was his tenth of the season and the 1,000th in Mets' history.

Ron Stone's bases-loaded single in the ninth snapped a 1-1 tie and gave the Phils their victory over Chicago. "I love pinch-hitting when I get up in the ninth with the bases loaded and none out," said Stone. "But I don't like it much when we're way behind and that's usually when they need a pinch hitter."

Killebrew Nearing His 500th Homer

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The next home run that Harmon Killebrew hits will be a big weight off his shoulders, to say nothing of Bill Rigney's mind.

"I'll be happy when No. 500 gets here because it's been bugging Killebrew ... and as the big guy goes, so we go," said Rigney, the Minnesota Twins' manager.

Killebrew ripped his 499th career blast Sunday as the Twins stopped the Boston Red Sox 6-2. But it was only his 12th this season—an unusually low total for the Killer—and snapped him out of a month-long homer drought.

The 500-homer plateau has been reached by only nine players in baseball history, the last being Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs in 1970.

While Killebrew inched toward the half-grand mark Sunday, Oakland's magical Vida Blue closed in on a 20-victory season, winning his 19th as the A's trimmed the Detroit Tigers 6-1 to gain a split of their doubleheader. The Tigers won the first game 7-4.

In Sunday's other American League games, the New York Yankees took a doubleheader from the Milwaukee Brewers, 6-2 in 11 innings and 11-9; the California Angels hammered the Baltimore Orioles twice, 6-2

PITCHING — Steve Arlin, Padres, tossed a three-hitter against Pittsburgh as San Diego completed a doubleheader sweep over the Pirates with a 2-0 victory.

BATTING — Bobby Murcer, Yankees, drove in five runs, including four with a pinch hit grand slam home run in the second game, as New York swept a doubleheader from Milwaukee 6-2 in 11 innings and 11-9.

and 9-6 in 13 the Chicago White Sox beat the Washington Senators 5-1 and 9-6 and the Kansas City Royals beat Cleveland 4-3 in the first game of their twin bill but lost 2-1 to the Indians in the second.

In the National League, Philadelphia trimmed Chicago 2-1, New York turned back Houston 7-6, Montreal bounced St. Louis 5-4, Atlanta beat Los Angeles 3-1, San Francisco beat Cincinnati 7-3 in the first game of a doubleheader but lost the second 5-2 and San Diego surprised Pittsburgh twice, 2-1 and 2-0.

Killebrew drove in a run for Minnesota with a single in the third inning, then capped a five-run explosion in the fifth off former teammate Luis Tiant with a 386-foot drive with two men aboard, his first homer since June 22.

Blue, boosting his record to 19-3, left after six innings of one-hit work simply because Oakland Manager Dick Williams "wanted to give me a rest."

Blue was struck on the foot by a pitch in the fourth inning. But that wasn't the reason Blue made an early departure and left the mopping up to Rolie Fingers.

"I guess he's just trying to save my arm so I can play this game a little longer," said Blue.

Williams, asked if he would consider lifting Blue if he were aiming for his 20th victory, said: "No, I wouldn't hesitate to take him out—the 20th doesn't mean anything to me. The victory does."

The pitch that hit the fabulous left-hander skipped off the top of his left foot, leaving a slight bruise. Williams said precautionary x-rays would be taken today, but that Blue would probably be ready to take his regular turn against Baltimore on Thursday.

In the opener, Detroit handed Chuck Dobson his first defeat of the season after nine victories. Tony Taylor slugged three hits, drove in three runs and scored three times for the Tigers, and Frank Baker smacked run-scoring singles in a four-run 11th inning to power New York's

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

A Photographer's Lament

Dear Helen:

Again this year I'm about to throw in the towel (or the camera). I'm a professional photographer, and much of my business is with high schools, taking pictures for the annuals, etc.

Compare the annual pictures of ten years ago with today's to see what I mean. Back then, girls wore lipstick and hairdos that enhanced the prettiness of their faces. Back then boys' faces showed. They weren't covered with hair. Today, females either pull their hair back in a granny bun or let it string down straight with a middle part and only one in fifty should wear it that way. The others don't have perfect features and believe me, austere hair styles do nothing for them! This, plus no lipstick or color in the face, makes their pictures about good-looking as a blob of clay with a mop on top.

So who gets the blame? The photographer, natch.

Trying to tell these kids how to be photogenic is useless. They'd slit their throats before they'd color their lips or admit their long, straight hair gives a droop to the entire face... in a photograph, that is.

So maybe you can tell them, Helen.—PHOTOGRAPHER WHO WISHES SHE WASN'T

Dear Photographer:

As a photographers wife, I've told them—but no more! Nowadays I just smile knowingly when teenagers mourn over how unphotogenic they are. One of these seasons, the styles will change—I hope.—H.

Dear Helen:

I am a woman who does not wish to be treated as an equal to

Man Wears Woman's Underwear

Dr. Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Could you tell me what causes a man to want to wear woman's clothes? He like to sleep wearing woman's briefs and panties

Dear Reader—While children may do any number of unusual things in the process of exploring and growing up, such behavior in an adult is a sign of a severe emotional disturbance. It should be regarded as an illness and needs medical attention. Such persons cannot usually help themselves. They need help and that usually means seeing a psychiatrist. Any family doctor can be helpful in making the arrangements or the medical society will help locate a psychiatrist.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I started the menopause at age 37. I was having deep depression and even suicidal thoughts. I went to several doctors here, only to be told it was something I just had to go through. I went to a gynecologist in a larger city. I was thoroughly examined, something none of the doctors before ever did. The gynecologist put me on hormones and explained people live much longer than they used to and there was no reason a woman should do without hormones, any more than a diabetic should go without insulin. I've been a different person and highly praise a good gynecologist. Why are M.D.s so ignorant about hormones?

Dear Reader—That last question sounds a little bit like that "When did you stop beating your wife" question. Good gynecologists are also M.D.s and your letter suggests that they are not so ignorant about hormones. It is true that doctors have different levels of skill, knowledge and even motivation. Believe it or not, they are even human. The whole field of medicine is too large for one person to "know it all." That is why we have specialists, and they should be used when a problem in-

Man Wears Woman's Underwear

Dr. Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Could you tell me what causes a man to want to wear woman's clothes? He like to sleep wearing woman's briefs and panties

Dear Reader—While children may do any number of unusual things in the process of exploring and growing up, such behavior in an adult is a sign of a severe emotional disturbance. It should be regarded as an illness and needs medical attention. Such persons cannot usually help themselves. They need help and that usually means seeing a psychiatrist. Any family doctor can be helpful in making the arrangements or the medical society will help locate a psychiatrist.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I started the menopause at age 37. I was having deep depression and even suicidal thoughts. I went to several doctors here, only to be told it was something I just had to go through. I went to a gynecologist in a larger city. I was thoroughly examined, something none of the doctors before ever did. The gynecologist put me on hormones and explained people live much longer than they used to and there was no reason a woman should do without hormones, any more than a diabetic should go without insulin. I've been a different person and highly praise a good gynecologist. Why are M.D.s so ignorant about hormones?

Dear Reader—That last question sounds a little bit like that "When did you stop beating your wife" question. Good gynecologists are also M.D.s and your letter suggests that they are not so ignorant about hormones. It is true that doctors have different levels of skill, knowledge and even motivation. Believe it or not, they are even human. The whole field of medicine is too large for one person to "know it all." That is why we have specialists, and they should be used when a problem in-

Palmer Captures Westchester

By KAROL STRONGER
Associated Press Sports Writer
HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — A recharged Arnold Palmer, who birdied 23 of 72 holes en route to the $50,000 top prize in the Westchester Golf Classic, said the big thing about his big payday was a bogey.

Palmer, who matched his Saturday round of 68 for an 18-under-par 270 Sunday on the 6,700-yard Westchester Country Club course, put his tee shot on the 14th hole over the green, nicked it a mere six feet with his second shot, then chipped 12 feet past the pin and putted a bogey four.

"If there was one big thing that happened," he said, "that was it. The one thing I didn't want to do was leave it there."

"But it was a good putt for a bogey and gave me the rhythm I needed to finish."

He finished five strokes ahead of Gibby Gilbert and Hale Irwin, who collected $23,125 apiece in this richest of pro tournaments.

Gilbert was only three strokes back of Palmer at the start of the final round.

But Gilbert, who had stolen Palmer's famous charge Saturday when he birdied the final four holes, carded two bogeys and a birdie on the same four Sunday.

Irwin, who started the final round five strokes back, maintained the margin with four birdies for a 68.

Sam Snead, the 59-year-old golfing wonder who has won 84 tournaments but had done no better than tie for 25th so far this year, stormed the course with a 68 Sunday to turn in an 11-under 277 and to tie Frank Beard for fourth and $11,000 each.

At 279 was Mason Rudolph, who started the final round two under but shot six birdies for a 30 on the front nine and wound up nine under. Knotted with him and also collecting $8,125 each were Bobby Nichols and Larry Wood.

PGA champion Jack Nicklaus, three under when he teed off, parred the front nine, then came on strong with five birdies on the back for an eight-under 280 and $6,500.

But the fantastic finishes, and the scores, 53 of them under par, were anti-climactic compared with Palmer's victory after a two-week layoff to collect his confidence, his concentration, the biggest paycheck of his career and a telephone call from President Nixon.

Hope Fails for Rail Settlement

By ROBERT L. CAMPBELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A spurt of optimism in the railroad negotiations faded out today without agreement.

"They were hopeful talks but the outlook doesn't look favorable toward reaching an agreement," a Labor Department spokesman said.

Negotiations were to resume at 3 p.m. (EDT) in an attempt to end walkouts against four railroads and to avert threatened strikes at 11 others in the next two weeks.

A session began at the Labor Department Sunday afternoon.

United Transportation Union President Charles Luna was on the union side of the table and the railroad industry was represented by J.P. Hiltz Jr., chairman of the National Railway Conference.

The chief issue in dispute is work rules changes the railroads say are necessary to cut costs and the union says will lay off too many men and cut salaries.

One railroad, the Chicago & North Western, has settled with the union for a 42-month contract that includes a 42 per cent wage hike above the current $3.50 average hourly pay. Indications are the railroads and UTU have agreed on that figure nationwide.

The strike began July 16 against the Southern Railway and the Union Pacific, and when Friday's all-night session failed to produce an agreement the union extended the strikes to the Southern Pacific and the Norfolk & Western, hoping to put more pressure on the industry.

Luna said Saturday six other railroads have been targeted for walkouts Friday. They are: Alton & Southern; Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe; the Houston Belt & Terminal; the Duluth, Mesabi — Iron Range; the Joliet & Eastern; and the Bessemer & Lake Erie.

Bishop Sheen at Protestant Church

NEW YORK (AP) — Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen has become the first Roman Catholic clergyman to preach a Sunday service at Marble Collegiate church, one of the city's historic Protestant churches.

The 76-year-old archbishop, who retired as bishop of the diocese of Rochester in 1969, told 3,000 persons who packed the church Sunday that "sin is not the worst thing in the world; the worst is denying that we are sinners."

Founded in 1854, Marble Collegiate is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America. The Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, pastor of the church for 39 years, invited Sheen.

Dr. Peale was on vacation in Europe, but he left a taped introduction for the archbishop, who gained prominence as a television preacher in the 1950s.

Red Chief Seized by Sudanese

By C. C. MINICLIER
Associated Press Writer
KHARTOUM (AP) — Sudanese President Jaafar el Numeiri's forces arrested the fugitive chief of the Communist party at dawn today and held him for a military trial on charges of masterminding the unsuccessful coup last week, the government radio announced.

It was assumed that the Red leader, Abdul Khalek Mahjoub, would be executed. Eight leaders of the 74-hour rebellion have already died before firing squads, and a ninth, Col. Babikir el Noor, is still on trial in Khartoum.

A broadcast statement from Numeiri's office called Mahjoub "the number one enemy of the nation, the chief saboteur," and urged the Sudanese people to help hunt down four of his aides still at large.

It said a Sudanese, who was not identified, had tipped the army to Mahjoub's hiding place in Khartoum.

Al Ahram, Cairo's semi-official newspaper, reported that Mahjoub engineered the revolt from the Bulgarian Embassy. The paper said Mahjoub had taken refuge there after he escaped from prison four weeks ago, but the Bulgarians denied the report.

The pro-Soviet Communist party that Mahjoub led is considered the best organized and largest in the Arab world with 6,000 members. Numeiri's government claims there are 10,000 to 20,000 Communists in Sudan.

Soon after he regained power last Thursday, Numeiri ordered all Communists arrested. He had outlawed the party last February because it opposed his plans to join Egypt, Syria, and Libya in an Arab federation.

Maj. Farouk Osman Hamadallah was the rebel leader executed Sunday. He and el Noor, who had been named chairman of the seven-man rebel junta, were en route from London to Khartoum when Libyan fighters forced their British airliner to land at Benghazi. They were taken off the plane and handed over to Numeiri.

Numeiri praised Libya and Egypt for supporting him during the upheaval. He told a news conference that he was looking into allegations that the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and Communist China were among those responsible for the coup. But he said so far the only country he could prove had supported the rebels was Iraq, the only Arab nation to recognize the rebel junta. He said documents had been found indicating the ruling Baath Socialist party in Iraq had backed the coup.

Numeiri said 38 persons were killed and 119 wounded in the coup and counter coup.

N. Vietnam Expected U.S. Bomb Attack

SAIGON (AP) — Hanoi foresaw the eventuality that the United States would take the war to North Vietnam's territory 14 months before President Lyndon B. Johnson launched the sustained bombing of the North in February 1965, according to a captured document made public by the U.S. Embassy today.

A resolution of the Central Committee of the North Vietnamese Communist party, adopted at a meeting in December 1963, said the "favorable development of the revolution in the South depends on our unceasing efforts to strengthen North Vietnam."

"Therefore, we must increase our economic and defensive strength in North Vietnam," it continued. "We should increase our vigilance at all times and be ready to face the enemy's new schemes. At the same time, we should be prepared to cope with the eventuality of the expansion of the war into North Vietnam."

The resolution also foresaw the possibility of the major buildup of U.S. forces in Vietnam which began in mid-1965 and reached a peak strength of 543,400 in April 1969. But it said this possibility was remote.

It said the Americans might "carry on the war at the present or slightly higher level" or they might "intensify the war by bringing in troops many times larger or both American troops and troops from the Southeast Asian aggressive bloc will intervene in the war."

Long Bike Ride Ends

MEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — After 34 days and a dozen flat tires, John Fay peddled up to his parents' home Sunday at the end of a 3,500-mile bicycle ride from San Francisco.

"It just came on me as something to do," explained the 25-year-old Fay, who had been working as an antipoverty volunteer in Oakland, Calif. He started the trip June 23.

"It was a fantastic experience, the greatest experience of my life," he said. "You learn a few lessons, living with yourself first of all, and all the different people you meet."

Fay said the toughest part was the long climb up the Rocky Mountains and the Sierras.

"But on the other side, I sat back and enjoyed it—36 miles downhill."

No Car Zone in Perugia

PERUGIA, Italy (AP) — Perugia's historic center was closed to automobile traffic today. Parking areas on the fringe of the district are being enlarged.

Racial Bombs Set Off in Columbus, Ga.

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Scattered firebombings and shots which police said were fired by snipers plagued this city Sunday night despite a call for a voluntary curfew by Mayor J.R. Allen.

Racial disorders began in mid-June when 500 blacks marched to protest the firing of seven Negro policemen who picketed police headquarters to protest alleged discrimination against black residents and police by the by the department.

Violence erupted again Saturday night as scores of police and state patrolmen clashed with some 200 demonstrators near police headquarters.

Police moved in to make arrests after the demonstrators failed to heed police orders to disperse. Police said no permit for the demonstration had been issued. Fifteen persons were arrested and four black demonstrators and a white newsman were injured.

Authorities reported 10 firebombings Saturday night and early Sunday. Several fires which police said were set blazed intermittently into the night Sunday and early today.

Two policemen, a fireman and a store security guard were wounded by what Police Capt. Milan Rand called sniper fire Saturday night and early Sunday. The guard was hospitalized.

Rand said shots also were fired at police cars and fire trucks as they passed through black neighborhoods, at firemen fighting fires in several vacant houses and at policemen guarding the firefighters. Police returned the fire, Rand said.

Police said patrol cars continued to be harassed by occasional fire Sunday night, but no injuries were reported.

About 75 state troopers—the second contingent to be sent into Columbus in five weeks to aid local officers—remained on alert.

2 Guards Are Seized by Prisoners

By JERRY ESTILL
Associated Press Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Two New Orleans Parish Prison guards were taken hostage early today by 30 inmates, including several Black Panthers being tried on charges of attempting to murder five policemen.

Prisoners said they took the hostages, both blacks, to protest conditions at the 42-year-old prison. One Panther had earlier complained that he had been bitten by a rat while asleep.

Prison officials said the inmates apparently overcame the two guards when the guards entered the cell area to serve breakfast. Officials said the guards were unharmed, although the inmates were reported armed with knives and other weapons they apparently had made from prison materials.

The inmates demanded a meeting with Mayor Moon Landrieu, Sheriff Louis A. Heyd Jr. and the Panthers' attorneys.

There was no word on whether the officials would meet with the inmates.

The average American family of four annually consumes more than 1,500 pounds of flour, cereal products, sugar, potatoes, fats, oils and eggs.

Measles on Rise for Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Health Department says the incidents of rubella or red measles continued to rise in June.

Officials said 100 of the cases were reported in June, compared to 62 in May. The total for the first six months is 805 cases, compared to 20 by the end of June 1970.

Dr. J. T. Herron, state health officer, said Sunday the disease had not reached epidemic proportions.

However, he said, "We are inoculating as many children as we can as fast as we can."
